MEDICINAL.

One Person Tells Another

ABOUT KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE.

That's Why Its Sale is Increasing so Rapidly—So there must be Something to Merit After All.

FIGHT BETWEEN WOMEN.—At New port News, yesterday, Maud Ray was probably fatally wounded on Thursday afternoon by Betty Gibson, another woman, who used a handkerchief dreadfully effect. The Gibson woman recently went there from Norfolk and became an inmate of Maud Ray's house. Later she left and entered Daisy Lee's house. This caused bad blood between the Ray and Gibson women. Thursday afternoon they met in the yard of the Lee woman's house and trouble started at once. Maud Ray was laid out to quick order with a huge gash in her head, while the Gibson woman stood master of the situation with the handkerchief still in her hand when she left. She claimed that Maud attacked her and she only defended herself. The Ray woman lies in a critical condition at her home.

"J M CROW" TEST CASE.—Capt. Dan M. Davis, of the Weems Steamboat Company, was before magistrate Pinckard, of Lancaster C. H., on Wednesday, to answer to an indictment for violating the separate car law as applied to steamboats. Commonwealth's Attorney Downing was prosecutor and George Williams, a prominent young B. & M. lawyer, appeared for the defense.

The magistrate imposed a fine of $25, and the case was appealed to the county court. The Weems people will take the case to the U. S. Supreme Court if necessary to test the constitutionality of the law. [Virginia Citizen.]

"SCHOOL OF ATHENS"—The public view of "The School of Athens" took place at the University of Virginia today. Professor W. M. Thornton presented the painting to the University, and Professor F. M. Smith, the senior member of the faculty, accepted the picture on behalf of the institution in the absence of Chairman Barringer. The artist, George W. Brock, spoke upon the history of copying the fresco, and the chief address of the occasion followed by Frederick Crownshield, the eminent artist. The exercises were held at the public hall, where will be the permanent resting place of the painting.

HERBING CATCH SMALL.—The run of herrings at Widewater and Marlboro is very small. There has been no haul of the seine at Widewater this season that landed over 5,000 herring. On the lower Potomac and near the mouth of the Rappahannock the catch is very large. Old fishermen high up console themselves that the fish are coming up and their time will come next. Herring are selling here at 83 to 85 cents per hundred and rock and perch from 20 to 60 cents per bunch. Sead bring high prices and but few are in the market. [Fredericksburg Lance.]

NOT AFRAID.—The disease which has so alarmed the people in the Valley, and which has been pronounced by some physicians small-pox and by others "plagues red," and who ridiculed the idea of its being small-pox, has, we hear, broken out in the Fork district. Those who have had it express themselves as greatly preferring it to vaccination. Whatever it may be, our people may rest assured that it is no way dangerous. None who have had it have been the least dangerously sick thereto. [Front Royal Sentinel.]

Saved Many a Time'—Don't neglect coughs and colds even if it is spring. Such cases often result seriously at such season just because people are careless. A dose of One Minute Cough Cure once a day cures for coughs, colds, bronchitis, bronchitis, and other throat and lung troubles. "I have used One Minute Cough Cure several years" says Postmaster C. O. Dawson Barr, Ill. "It is the very best medicine on the market. It has saved me many a severe spell of sickness and I warmly recommend it." The children's favorite. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Son.
